

MICHIGAN BASIN GEOLOGICAL SOCIETY SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION 2023

Name (last, first, middle initial)	Home Telephone ()	Office Telephone ()
Present Address with Zip Code:
Present Institution:	Department:	Degree Sought:
Previous Institution:	Department:	Degree Awarded:
Awards & Honors: (award, institution bestowing award, & year):
Professional Experience (job, employer, location, dates of employment):
Title of Proposed Investigation:
Source of Research Project (individual or group, student's idea, part of professor's ongoing research, outgrowth of class work, critical review of literature, etc.):
Project Goal (one sentence statement of central goal of research project):
Percent of Project Completed:

TO BE COMPLETED BY ENDORSING FACULTY MEMBER (This section must be completed in full for application consideration)

Endorsement: Assessment of the student's application and project: Assessment of applicant's capability to fulfill the objectives of the stated research: Compared to other students, how does this student rank (top 10%, 20%, etc.)? Are there any other factors that we should consider (such as student's financial situation)?
Department Endorsement: Dept. Chair or Grad Advisor's Signature: _____ Please type or print name: _____ Date: _____	DEPARTMENT OR UNIVERSITY SEAL or STAMP
Discipline Emphasis (e.g., petrophysics, paleontology, stratigraphy, structural, etc.):
Procedures emphasized in your work (e.g., field work, seismic interpretation, etc.):

Summary of Investigation (250 words or less; must all fit in this box; please print neatly or type directly into this section in the current format). Include purpose, regional context, methods, scientific importance and potential impact. The Summary is by necessity brief and must focus on information relevant to your scholarship application:

Applicant's Signature _____

Date: _____

*Applications due by December 20, 2023 to: John A. Yellich,
MBGS Secretary john.a.yellich@wmich.edu
Email Subject Line: MBGS Scholarship 2023*